

OKTAY ÖZCAN

He was born in 1965. He completed his primary and secondary education in Akhisar / Manisa and his high school education in İzmir Atatürk High School. He entered in 1982 and graduated from the Faculty of Economics and Administrative Sciences-Business Administration Department in 1986. After completing his military service as a Reserve Officer, he started his business life. He worked in the public relations sector between 1990-1993. In 1993, he started working at Turkish Airlines. He served as Passenger Services, Administrative and Financial Affairs Chief, Operations Coordinator, Aircraft Security Chief and Flight Operations Specialist-Dispatcher (Licensed). He retired from THY A.O. in 2015. He graduated from Anadolu University Faculty of Business Administration - Aviation Management. Since 2017, he has been teaching as a part-time lecturer in the departments of Civil Air Transport Management and Aircraft Technology at Ege University Aviation Vocational School. Since March 2020, he has been teaching at Izmir University of Economics Vocational High School Civil Air Transport Management and Civil Aviation Cabin Services programs as part-time lecturer. He is married with a child.