

Şevket Cenk ARTUK

He works at Izmir Adnan Menderes Airport as ground handling services for Havas. He has been working in the company he is in for 20 years and has been working as an operation staff and since 2010 as a ramp supervisor and instructor.

He worked in various fields of tourism like agency and hotel management. After working as an instructor in tourism schools for a period, he stepped into aviation world with Çelebi aviation service in 1996. Within the body of Ege University, he supports ramp services and airport equipment lessons as an external instructor. Also he is married and has a son.